

Reed Fink Award Deadline May 15

Posted on May 9, 2012 by Rosemary Feurer

One or more fellowship(s) of $250-$500 are awarded annually to individual(s) whose research in the Southern Labor Archives will lead to a book, article, dissertation, or other substantive product. The recipient will make a presentation about his/her research to the Georgia State University community and the fellowship amount will be awarded thereafter.

Faculty, graduate students, upper-level undergraduates, and recognized independent scholars and artists are encouraged to apply.

To be considered for the 2012 Reed Fink Award in Southern Labor History, applicants should submit:

- An application (http://library.gsu.edu/2012_Reed_Fink_Award_Application.pdf)
- A statement of intent explaining proposed research, including scholarly significance and relevance to archival holdings. (250 words or less)
- A résumé or vita no longer than three pages

All materials should be submitted by May 15, 2012. We currently only accept submissions of materials in electronic form. Please submit all required materials as a single .pdf document and e-mail it to tdrummond@gsu.edu.

For more information contact Traci Drummond, Archivist, Southern Labor Archives, Georgia State University Library, 404-413-2880 or tdrummond@gsu.edu.
