

Graduate Student Travel Grants for the LAWCHA Conference

Posted on March 22, 2013 by Rosemary Feurer

The Labor and Working-Class History Association will award four travel grants of $250 each to graduate students presenting at the June conference in New York.

To be eligible graduate students must be members of panels already accepted for the program. Each applicant must submit a one-page abstract of the paper to be presented and a c.v. The selection committee must receive all application materials no later than April 15. Recipients of the awards will be notified by May 5 and must join or already be members of LAWCHA.

A brief list of requirements:

- Must currently be a graduate student and presenting at the June 6-8 conference
- A one-page abstract of the paper you are presenting
- A c.v.
- Deadline: April 15
