

Labor Archives and Research Center 30th Anniversary Celebration

Posted on June 13, 2016 by Rosemary Feurer

Flyaway Productions, a Bay Area dance company, was commissioned by the Labor Archives and Research Center to create an aerial site-specific performance, choreographed by Jo Kreiter, to promote the 30th anniversary of the Labor Archives and Research Center in the SF State library. According to Director of the Labor Archives, Catherine Powell the performance was dedicated to women's rights and gender roles in the work place during the 1970s.
